

BUFFALO STATE
The State University of New York

Department of Interior Design
Upton Hall 214
1300 Elmwood Avenue
Buffalo, NY 14222-1095
Tel: (716) 878-4223

GRADUATING SENIOR PROFILE:

Specialist Knowledge:

- A mastery of a body of knowledge and application of the elements and principles of interior design in a historical and theoretical framework.
- The graduating senior exhibits developed creative and individual expression well-informed by historical precedents and latest developments and continuing education in the field.
- Use of creative problem solving methods and strategies for a holistic design process
- Demonstrate an understanding of thorough code analysis procedures and mastery on production of code analysis plans and drawings.

General intellectual skills and capacities:

- A passion for critical, conceptual and reflective thinking.
- An intellectual openness and curiosity
- Preparedness to compete professionally and ethically in a global economy
- Exhibit exceptional creativity and individual expression
- Research, recognize, manage, localize, analyze and disseminate information

Personal qualities:

- Motivated, self starters, who own responsibility and 'community living' and volunteerism are a way of life
- Discovers who exhibit ability to work independently and in collaboration with others.
- Self-discipline and master time-managers.
- Personal and professional integrity
- Life long learners